

Andrew Roach

Assistant Commissioner (Acting)
Office of Systems Management
Federal Acquisition Service
U.S. General Services Administration

---

As Acting Assistant Commissioner for the Office of Systems Management (OSM), Andrew will focus on ensuring a smooth transition to the permanent assistant commissioner by leading the selection process for the Federal Acquisition Service Systems Transformation (FASST) deputy assistant commissioner.

Andrew will also continue the collaboration with the Office of Management and Budget to enhance the Made in America waiver and transparency site, enable a smooth Unique Entity Identifier (UEI) transition, and support the great work by the Integrated Award Environment program and FASST in their systems modernization efforts.

Andrew joined GSA in 2005 and, within the Office of the Chief Financial Officer, served as the Branch Chief for FAS Audits & Controls, Branch Chief of Financial Reporting & Analysis, and Director of the FAS Budget division. He moved to OSM at the beginning of 2021. Andrew has led the Management and Program Support Division team in managing OSM's budget, contract administration, human resource and administrative activities, supporting Presidential Executive Order #14005 Ensuring the Future is Made in All of America by All of America's Workers in delivering the site, and conducting enterprise governance of FAS's IT investment portfolio. He believes in promoting a culture of learning, knowledge sharing, collaboration, and continuous process improvement.
